

Location of Commonwealth War Grave

Commonwealth War Grave Commission

As part of the centenary of the First World War the CWGC is working on a project to erect Commission signs at as many sites as possible that contain war graves. The aim is to increase awareness of war graves in the UK and perhaps increase visitors to churchyards and churches.

St. Giles has one war grave to the right as you approach the entrance.

